

Intellectual Property.

GSK. The Difference.

Intellectual Property at GSK.

We are leading specialists dedicated to uncompromising integrity and quality. Our goal is to address complex IP matters in an integrated and strategic manner in order to provide fast, innovative, effective, cost efficient and tailored solutions for you and thus meet or even exceed your expectations.

Our Services.

We provide advice and handle contentious and non-contentious projects regarding managing, asserting, enforcing, defending or transferring, as well as leveraging intellectual property rights and related rights, including:

- > trademarks, designs and patents
- > copyright, including software and databases
- > international IP portfolio management
- > trade secret and unfair competition
- > defamation and reputation management
- > corporate related matters, involving M&A transactions and private equity, venture capital financing, as well as joint venture transactions
- > due diligence processes, including research and registration of rights
- > structuring and drafting transfer of rights and licensing contracts
- > research & development matters

Our Expertise.

We provide advice and deliver innovative and effective solutions at the leading edge of IP issues. We provide a pragmatic and rapid approach, in order to protect or defend your interests and to resolve disputes. Consequently, we often obtain or defend preliminary or permanent injunctions concerning trademarks, designs, patents, copyrights as well as counterfeit goods or related infringements.

Our Clients.

Our clients come from both the private and public sector. Private sector clients include multi-national companies from various industry sectors, such as entertainment, aviation, automotive and real estate. We also advise technology service providers, starting from their early growth stage. Public sector clients include government agencies, universities and regulatory bodies.

GSK. Who we are.

GSK Stockmann is a leading independent law firm in Germany and Luxembourg, focusing on real estate, corporate, banking/finance and projects & public sector. GSK was created in 1997 as an association of lawyers from renowned business law firms. Today, our clients can call upon more than 160 nationally and internationally renowned lawyers at our offices in Berlin, Frankfurt, Hamburg, Heidelberg, Munich and Luxembourg. For cross-border transactions and international projects, GSK works closely with a select group of highly respected partner law firms abroad.
