➤ “Competent, innovative and high-quality legal advice on complex transactions and real estate projects with an emphatic approach.”

Heiner Krull, architect,
Head of Planning (South), Art-Invest Real Estate Management GmbH & Co. KG

Private Building Law

We advise on all of your complex building projects, particularly office buildings, hotels, residential properties, logistics facilities, plant construction, infrastructure projects and civil engineering structures. Some of our key areas of advice are:

- Drafting, negotiating and structuring contracts
- Ongoing legal advice during the construction phase
- Dispute resolution, including mediation, out-of-court settlements, adjudication, conciliation and arbitration proceedings

Architect and Engineering Law

Realising complex building projects naturally requires the expertise of architects and engineers. This is why our work on such projects also covers all of their services beyond principal and executing companies. Well thought-out planning management and project control complete the package. We support clients with:

- Contract design
- Liability and compensation law
- Protecting architectural copyrights
- Architectural design competitions
- Dispute resolution
