GSK Stockmann advises on Velum acquisition

GSK Stockmann has advised the buyer on the acquisition of the residential and commercial building Velum at Arnulfpark in Munich.

The striking residential and commercial property near Munich's main railway station has just over 5,700 m² of leasable area and is let to a broadcaster, a bank, a real estate company and catering businesses in addition to apartment tenants.

GSK Stockmann assisted in the transaction with a team led by Michael Eggersberger. The advice included the legal due diligence and the negotiation of the purchase agreement.

Advisers to the buyer

GSK Stockmann: Michael Eggersberger (lead), Sascha Zentis (investment law), Harald Feiler (compliance law); Associates: Felix Bergfort, Gloria Beine (both real estate law), Theresa Jakob (public law), Andreas Ebert (tax law), Jan-Wolfgang Kröger (compliance law)
