FOCUS Survey: GSK Stockmann is ranked one of Germany's TOP Corporate Law Firms 2021

In its current issue, the German news magazine FOCUS recognises GSK Stockmann as a 2021 TOP corporate law firm. GSK Stockmann is one of the most frequently recommended law firms in Germany in the practice areas of banking and capital markets, real estate and construction law, compliance as well as corporate law.

FOCUS-SPEZIAL presents Germany's TOP corporate law firms for the ninth straight time. The shortlist is based on recommendations from legal experts in law firms and in-house legal departments.

For its current ranking, FOCUS approached 10,700 lawyers at corporate law firms and 3,100 in-house lawyers. Approximately 2,700 of them took part in the survey conducted by FactField, an independent research institute, and were interviewed on a total of 22 practice areas. This year's survey incorporated an average of 507 relevant recommendations from participants per field of expertise. There were 410 corporate law firms recommended for the 22 fields of expertise.

As in previous years, GSK Stockmann is once again one of the TOP corporate law firms and was recognised by peers and clients both on an interdisciplinary level and in the specialist areas of banking and capital markets, construction law and real estate, compliance as well as corporate law.
